THE MONTEITH FAMILY of JACKSON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

by: Don Middleton

(NOTE: This is an incomplete history on the Monteith/Montieth/Monteeth/Monteath/Montee family of Jackson County, Mississippi.It also covers some of the Ely, Crawford, and Morgan family)

I.THE EARLY HISTORY OF MARY CATHERINE ELY-

Mary Catherine Ely was born on 11 June 1815 in the Mississippi Territory. Later the area become Jackson County, Mississippi. Mary Catherine Ely was baptized by Father Vincent Genen, Pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church of Mobile while he was in Pascagoula on Thursday 18 January 1816. According to church records Mary Catherine was baptized Marie Catherine Ely. She would be called Catherine through out her entire life. The church record gave her parents as Antoine Ely and Magdeleine Cumbest. It named her grandparents as Charles Ely and Marie Francoise Isbac on her father's side and as Simon Combest and Marie Eva Kop on her mother's side. The baptism records for her brother's and sister's gives their parents full names as Jean Antoine Ely and Sarah Magdeleine Cumbest. It gives the grandparents full names as (Carlos) Charles Pierre (Peter) Ely and Marie Francoise (Isbac) Wissembach and as Simeon Cumbest and Eve Marie (Mary) Kop. The Godparents of Mary Catherine Ely were Bazile Krebs (Godfather) and Marianne DuPont (Godmother). This record is found in the Mobile Parish Catholic Church Records in Mobile, Alabama.

Mary Catherine Ely's parents Antoine and Sarah Cumbest Ely had the following (4) four children:

1.Mary Rose Ely --------born 22 FEB 1813 married twice:
1.Benjamin Nicholas Coleman
2.Charles Nelson
Mary Rose died 7 March 1894 Coleman Cemetery.
2.Mary Catherine Ely----born 11 June 1815 married twice:
1.Charles White on 14 FEB 1833
2.Morton W.N. Monteith
3.Margaret Ely----------born 02 OCT 1817 married to Harris Hamilton on 23 July 1836.
died 14 Sept.1902/ Rosedale Cemetery.
4.Charles Ely-----------born 24 NOV 1819 married to Margaret Goff ? or Davis ? died 30 NOV 1904/Rosedale Cemetery.

Antoine Ely died around 1820. His widow Sarah Cumbest Ely married as her second husband Ellis Fairbanks. Sarah and her 2nd husband had one child:

5.Ellis Fairbanks Jr.--15 DEC 1822 married to Mary Ann Carter on 6 FEB 1851.
died 23 JAN 1900/ buried in the Fairbanks-Fairley Cemetery.

Mary Catherine Ely grew up and married her first husband Charles White in Mobile County, Alabama on 14 February 1833. On the marriage certificate her last name is spelled Eley. The marriage appears on page 1131 of book 2 in Mobile County, Alabama Probate Records.

Catherine and Charles White's marriage is an unsolved mystery to this day. In the book "Simon Cumbest and Allied Families" by Melba Goff Allen (1989) the writer states that Catherine and Charles may have been the parents of (8) eight children. No records of these children have ever been found to date. The writer states that (4) four of these children died in New Orleans from yellow fever, another named Cecilia was killed in a fire in California , and the rest went off with th father and disappeared from all records. I wrote to Mrs. Allen several times and ask about this data. I never got a reply. It is believed that Charles and Cathrine did not have any children. I've searched for them to no avail.

Catherine Ely White was still going by the last name of White in 1839. In that year her name appears on the following record. In 1839 a legal document titled the : Settlement of the Estate of Antonie Ely. He was Catherine's father. This document names the following people: Mary Rose Coleman; Harris Hamilton; Sarah Fairbanks; and Catherine White. These two documents also give descriptions of land that was owned by Antoine Ely. The two documents are dated 12 August 1839 and 14 August 1839 in Jackson County, Mississippi.

As stated above the first husband of Catherine Ely White disappears from local records. It is not known if Charles White died , divorced, or just left Catherine.

II.THE INTRODUCTION OF THE MONTEITH FAMILY IN JACKSON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI-

The first record to show the name MONTEITH in Jackson County, Mississippi is the Records for the Ebenezer Clark Shipyard that was located in Pascogoula, Mississippi. The Library at Pascagoula has the Logbook for the Shipyard. It covers the years 1838-1856. Within the logbook are the following entry:Teacher of Ebenezer Clark's children.

The 2nd record for Monteith comes from the Federal Bureau of Land Management. It states that Morton W.N. Monteath bought two (2) pieces of land. They were:

On 29 December 1846 the NW Quarter of the SW Quarter of Section 26 in Township 3 South in Range 5 West consisting of 40 acres of land for $50.26 in Jackson County, Mississippi.

AND On 29 December 1846 the NW" of the SW" of Section 36 in Township 3 South in Range 5 West consisting of 40 Acres in Jackson County, Mississippi.

The issue date for this document was the 01st day of September 1848.

The record shows that this was a cash sale conducted at Augusta, Mississippi. In 1910 George County, Mississippi was created out of the northern part of Jackson County, Mississippi. This land today is located in George County, Mississippi near the Escatawpa River.

On the 13th day of December 1847 a legal document was written in Jackson County, Mississippi. This document was a Power of Attorney document for the heirs of Antonie Ely. The most important thing this document does is gives us proof of the second marriage of Catherine Ely White. Within the document it names Catherine Monteath as the wife of Morton W.N. Monteath. Besides Catherine and Morton W.N. Monteath, the document also list John C. Ely; Sarah Fairbanks; Mary Rose Nelson; Harris Hamilton; and Margaret Hamilton.

By 1850 Morton W.N. Monteith disappears from all Mississippi records A search of Census records for the year 1850 shows that Morton W.N. Monteith had gone west.

III.MORTON W.N. MONTEITH IN CALIFORNIA-

1850 Census for El Dorado County, California Page 351:

M.W.N. MONTEITH age 32 born New Hampshire living on Mathenea's Creek working as a MINER.

census was conducted on 02 October 1850.

It looks like Morton W.N. Monteith caught gold fever and took off to California for the 1849 Gold Rush. It is not known if he divorced our Catherine or just up and left her. I hired a lady in California to do a little California research for us on Morton W.N. Monteith. She could not locate him on the 1860 census. But did find him on the 1870 census.

1870 Census for Sacramento County, California page

M.W. Monteath age 51 born in Maine
He was a nurseryman.
This census shows him as a patient in the hospital located in the 4th ward in the city of Sacramento. The name of the hospital was the Capital Hospital.

The researcher out in California check several different records but could not find any other records listing Morton W.N. Monteith. She checked the Recorder's Office for marriage and death records and found none. She also checked the 1860, 1900, and 1910 census and did not find him. She also looked in the Sacramento city directories and had no luck. In 1866 there was two nurseries in Sacramento: The Empire and the Sacramento Nursery.One final note she did check all the variations of the spelling.

While Morton W.N. Monteith was out in California,Catherine his wife disappears from all records. From 1847 until 1870 she has not been located. She re-appears in Jackson County, Mississippi in 1870.

IV.CATHERINE ELY WHITE MONTEITH ON HER OWN-

About the time that Morton W.N. Monteith leaves for California, his wife Catherine is giving birth to their daughter. Texanna Monteith was born on 26 July 1849. But another record states that Texanna Monteith was born on 26 July 1851. On later census records she claims to have been born in the state of Texas ?

The second known child of Catherine Ely White Monteith is a son named Nathaniel Mortimor Monteith. He was born in Mississippi on 04 September 1854. So if Morton W.N. Monteith was out in California than who is the father of Nathaniel M. Monteith ? Did Morton W.N. Monteith come back to Mississippi for a visit ? I'll give that data on this later in this story.

On the 09th of September 1862 Catherine Ely Monteith's mother Sarah Cumbest Ely Fairbanks wrote a will in Jackson County, Mississippi. In her last will and testament Sarah Fairbanks gives her daughter Catherine Monteith a negro slave named Rachiel and her baby.

The 1870 U.S. Federal Census gives up the following info:

1870 Census for Jackson County, Mississippi page 435-

Monteith, C. age 55 born in Mississippi
Monteith, T. age 20 born in Texas

Note on the census that Catherine's son Nathaniel M. Monteith was not listed. He would have been 16 years old. Also note that Texanna's place o birth is listed as Texas ? Did Catherine go to Texas? I have checked some Texas records, but have not found Catherine to date.

On the 15th of January 1875 Catherine Monteith according to the Jackson County, Mississippi Track Land Book bought 160 acres of land located at : N½ of the NE ¼ ; the SW ¼ of the NE ¼; and the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 29 in Township 4, Range 5 in Jackson County, Mississippi.

During the year 1876 a scandal took place in Jackson County, Mississippi. Nicholas B. Coleman and his wife Martha Ann Coleman fought it out in court through out the 1870's. Nicholas Coleman was the nephew of Catherine Ely Monteith. He was the son of Catherine's older sister Mary Rose Ely Coleman Nelson. The divorce file is very large. It has several depositions given by members of the Hurley community. These depositions include ones given by Nathaniel Monteith, Nicholas Coleman, Martha Coleman & others.In the papers Nicholas and his first cousin Texanna are accused of having an affair near the old Salem Camp ground. Catherine and Texanna claim to have lived for a period of time in the Springhill area of Mobile County, Alabama. The entire file is located in the Jackson County, Mississippi court house and at the Pascagoula Library. It also states that Texanna was the daughter of W.M. Monteath.

The 1880 U.S. Federal Census gives the following data:

1880 Census for Jackson County, Mississippi- page 586-

Monteith, Catherine age 65 born in Alabama. Father born in Alabama and mother born in Alabama.
Catherine is listed as living alone.

The last record to show Catherine Ely White Monteith still alive is on the 17th of September 1881. On that date Catherine Monteith made an application for a Homestead. She filed it under the name Mary Catherine Monteith. It was given #7988. The land was given the following description: North Half of the North East Quarter and the South West Quarter of the North East Quarter and the North West Quarter of the South East Quarter of Section 29 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West in Jackson County, Mississippi. Her witnesses included the following: William H. Hamilton, William D. Crawford, Luke Mizell, and Malcolm L. Hamilton. In her claim Catherine states that she was 65 years old, had one daughter and one son, a native born U.S. citizen, and lived at Americus, Jackson County, Mississippi. She claims to have settled on that land more than 20 years ago. She states that her family lived with her until they married off. Her house was built about four years before. She claims to have about 10 acres of corn, potatoes, sugar cane, peas, and rice.

It appears that Catherine Monteith was dead by the time the 1900 U.S. Federal Census was conducted. She is not found on it. On the 6th day of March 1905 a property deed found in Jackson County, Mississippi states-sell to L.W. Howard and M.R. Roberts for $600.00 dollars the following property in Jackson County, Mississippi: S.W.¼ of the N.E.¼ and the N.W. ¼ of the S.E.¼ of Section 29 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West. The deed was filed on the 13th of April 1907.

> "..we, Texanna Coleman and N.M. Monteith, the only children and heirs of Catherine Monteith, deceased,....."

At this time we do not have a death date or a place of burial for Mary Catherine Ely White Monteith. Someone once told me she was buried on her property ?

V. THE KNOWN CHILDREN OF MARY CATHERINE ELY WHITE MONTEITH-

1. TEXANNA MONTEITH-

Texanna Monteith gives her birthdate as 26 July 1849. Her headstone states that she was born on 26 July 1851. On most census records she listed her state of birth as Texas. Other records show that she was born in Mississippi. They are discrepancies in these statements. She is believed to be the oldest child and only daughter of Morton W.N. Monteith and Mary Catherine Ely White Monteith. The 1850 Census shows that her father Morton Monteith had left Mississippi and moved west to El Dorado County, California.Her death record at the O'Bryant-O'Keefe Funeral Home in Pascagoula shows her as being born in July 1849.

Called "Aunt Texie" she lived in the Hurley area of Jackson County, Mississippi with her mother Catherine Monteith. The 1870 Census for Jackson County, Mississippi shows Texanna at age 20. In the 1870's Texanna is caught up in the scandalous divorce of her first cousin Nicholas B. Coleman. Their mother's were sisters. The papers claim that Nicholas and Texanna were having an affair. After Nicholas and Martha A. Coleman divorced, Nicholas and Texanna married in Jackson County, Mississippi on 02 September 1877.

On the 6th day of April 1908 a legal document was filed in Jackson County, Mississippi showing that land at the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 29 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West owned by Mrs. N.B. Coleman was sold to T.G. Hibbler for $5.20 by the Tax Collector for delinquent taxes for the year 1907. This is land that had belong to Texanna's mother Catherine Monteith.

On the 07 of September 1914 Nicholas B. Coleman applied for a Confederate pension for his service in the Mississippi 15th Cavalry during the Civil War. He states that he was 83 year old and married. His address is Jackson County, Mississippi. Nicholas B. Coleman died in Jackson County, Mississippi on 02 August 1915. He was buried in the Magnolia Springs Cemetery at Hurley, Mississippi.

Following the death of her husband, Texanna Monteith Coleman made an application for a widows pension from the State of Mississippi in 1915, 1916, and 1924. She states that her husband Nicholas B. Coleman enlisted into the Confederate Army on the 24th of August 1861. Texanna was granted the pension.

On the 25th of August 1917 Case #3642 was filed in Jackson County, Mississippi Chancery Court. Texanna Monteith Coleman was the complaint and Charles E. Coleman was the defendant. The case centered around the following land: the NE¼ of Section 30 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West. Charles Coleman claims that even though Nicholas and Texanna were married, they did not live together in the same house. He stated that Texanna had ceased to live with Nicholas for many years. Charles Coleman was a nephew of Nicholas and stated that he took care of his uncle in return his uncle left him the aboved named land. So Texanna and Charles battled over this property in Jackson County, Mississippi.

Texanna Monteith Coleman made her last Will and Testament on the 28th day of August 1928 in Jackson County, Mississippi. In her Will she left all of her property to her second cousin and his wife Ellis W. and Mary Etta Hamilton.

Texanna Monteith Coleman died on the 22nd day of May 1935 and was buried in the Magnolia Springs Cemetery in Hurley, Mississippi. She does have a headstone. The record of the funeral home for May 22, 1935 shows the funeral cost $100.00 dollars. Ellis Hamilton paid for the funeral of "Aunt Texie" with some cash and 10 gal.'s of syrup.

On the 29th day of August 1935 Case # 5715 was filed in Jackson County, Mississippi Chancery Court and Probated . It closed out the estate of Texanna Monteith Coleman.

You can find Texanna and Nicholas Coleman on census records for Jackson County, Mississippi for 1880, 1900, 1910, 1920 , and 1930. Texanna did list on several of the census records that her father was born in the state of New York. Nicholas B. Coleman and Texanna Monteith Coleman did not have any children.

2. NATHANIEL M. MONTEITH-

The other known child of Mary Catherine Ely White Monteith was a son named Nathaniel M. Monteith. He was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 04 September 1854. While we can document the mother of Nathaniel , we have not been able to document his father to date. The problem with Morton W.N. Monteith is that he was out in California by 1850 and appears to still be out in California in 1870. It could be possible that Morton returned to Mississippi for a short period of time but seems unlikely. In the late 1960's Mr. Elton Tanner was told by a daughter of Nathaniel M. Monteith that the father of Nathaniel was a man named John R. Dickin. We have no proof of this to be true. This John R. Dickin was a colorful figure in the Jackson County and Mobile County community. He was married to Susan Dickin and they had several children. John R. Dickin is said to have dressed like an Indian and is believed to have traveled around a lot. He died on 23 March 1885 and was buried in the Shady Grove Cemetery off of Airport Blv. in Mobile County, Alabama near the Mississippi stateline on the way to Hurley, Mississippi. He did leave a Will in Jackson County, Mississippi. It did not name any Monteith's. The daughter of Nathaniel that told this was LouElla Monteith.

Another discrepancy is over the middle name of Nathaniel. I've seen it as Mortimer and as Monroe ? It appears that Catherine did try to name him after or as close as possilbe to her second husbands name of Morton W.N. Monteith. We do not know what the W. or the N. stands for in his name.

Nathaniel M. Monteith married Sarah Leona Crawford in Jackson County, Mississippi on 27 February 1879. She was the daughter of William Crawford and Mary Ann Morgan of Mobile County, Alabama. Sarah was born in Mobile County near Citronelle, Alabama on 27 July 1864. I've included more on the CRAWFORD family at the end of this story.

U.S. Federal Census records for 1880,1900,1910, and 1920 show Nathaniel and show Sarah Monteith. They lived in the Hurley , Mississippi area according to the census. The Jackson County, Mississippi Land Track Book shows that Nathaniel and Sarah owned a home and land located at the SE¼ of the NE¼ and the E½ of the SE¼ and the SW ¼ of the SE¼ of Section 29 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West 160 Acres.

The date of the land entry into the Track Book was the 07 of March 1887.

On the 18th day of February 1893 Nathaniel M. Monteith made an application for a Homestead on his property located at above given discription. He list the following information on the application. He lived at Americus, Mississippi in Jackson County. He's 38 years old, born in Mississippi, and has a wife and children. His witnesses included Thomas A. Roberts, John W. Jones, Bryant B. Baria all of Americus, Mississippi. The application was given # 17333.

On the 9th day of February 1912 a T.G. Hibbler filed a suit against Nathaniel M. Monteith in Jackson County, Mississippi court over land located in the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 29 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West. Hibbler was seeking a lien on the property. This is land that had belong to Nathaniel's mother Catherine Monteith.Given Case#3036

Nathaniel M. and Sarah Monteith had (6) SIX children. These six children are found on the census records as well as the following document. The 1890 Jackson County, Mississippi Educable Children's Roll list (5) five of the Monteith's six children. The following is a brief break down of their (6) six children:

a.Susanna Monteith- was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 28 November 1879. She married John W. Jones in Jackson County on 20 January 1898.Susanna Monteith Jones died on 25 February 1950.

b.Mary Eugenia Monteith-was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on November 1882. She married Guss Tanner in Jackson County, Mississippi on 16 November 1902. Mary Eugenia Monteith Tanner died on 09 January 1937.

c.John Knox Monteith- was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 07 September 1883. He married Margaret Jane Lyons in Jackson County, Mississippi on 21 February 1904. John Knox Monteith/Montee died in Mobile County, Alabama on 13 September 1946. He was buried at Union Church Cemetery in Mobile County.My great grandfather.More at end of story.

d.Alice Drucilla Monteith-was born in Jackson County,Mississippi on 15 December 1884. She married Willie Walter Tanner in Jackson County, Mississippi on 09 July 1905. Alice Drucilla Monteith Tanner died on .

e.LouElla Monteith- was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 18 April 1889. She married Rhutt Danley in Jackson County, Mississippi on 11 May 1909. LouElla Monteith Danley died on 06 September 1975. She was buried in the Shady Grove Cemetery in Mobile County, Alabama.

f.William Marvin Monteith-was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 09 December 1891. He would marry twice. His first wife was Mabel Parker Miller. They married in George County, Mississippi on 25 December 1914. He married as his second wife Mrs. Katie Belle Harrison.

In March of 1910 Nathaniel M. Monteith filed for divorce from his wife of 30 years Sarah Crawford Monteith. The papers were filed in the Chancery Court of Jackson County, Mississippi. He claimed that Sarah Monteith had deserted him in September of 1906. He gave a deposition in March of 1910 concerning the events of the divorce case. He stated that when his youngest daughter LouElla was 20 years old she had a young man call upon her. Nathaniel stated that Sarah let the young man stay at the house until unseemly late hours. When he said something to Mrs. Monteith about it she became very angry and since that time conducted herself in that manner. On the 24th of March 1910 the divorce that was given case # 1955 was granted to Nathaniel M. Monteith by the judge. Sarah did not appear to fight the divorce.

On the 9th day of April 1910 Nathaniel M. Monteith married as his second wife Etta Coleman in Jackson County, Mississippi. This was just days after his divorce was granted. Etta was the daughter of Sidney Coleman. That made her a cousin to Nathaniel Monteith. He was 56 years old and she was about 21 years old.

Nathaniel and Etta Monteith would have one child a son:

g. Walter Danny Monteith-was born in Hurley, Mississippi on 31 January 1911. He married Lillie Hawkins. Walter Monteith died at the Ojai Valley Hospital in Ventura County, California. He was buried in the Ivy Lawn Memorial Cemetery. His date of death was 10 April 1968.

According to Nathaniel M.Monteith's death certificate he died in Jackson County, Mississippi on 05 January 1922 from Pneuralgia of the heart. He was buried in the Coleman Cemetery at Hurley, Mississippi.

Upon the death of Nathaniel Monteith, Etta Coleman Monteith married as her second husband Andrew Haskell Perkins. Etta had moved with Walter out to Los Angeles County, California. Etta and her second husband had three children of their own: Leroy Haskell Perkins, Whither, California; Ester Marie Perkins who lived in Sacramento, California, and Bert O'Brien Perkins who lived in Irving, Texas. Etta died in December 1952 and Andrew died in March 1956. They are buried in Rosehill Memorial Park Cemetery in Los Angeles County, California.

After her divorce, Sarah Crawford Monteith lived out her years in Hurley, Mississippi. She died on 19 April 1939 and was buried in the Coleman Cemetery at Hurley, Mississippi. I have two pictures of Sarah Monteith. She was called "Little grandma". I have one picture of Nathaniel M. Monteith.

VI. DATA ON THE FAMILY OF SARAH LEONA CRAWFORD MONTEITH;"THE CRAWFORDS"-

As stated above the first wife of Nathaniel M. Monteith was Sarah Leona Crawford. She was the daughter of William Crawford and Mary Ann Morgan.

William Crawford was born around the year 1816. He married Mary Ann Morgan in Mobile County, Alabama on 31 August 1844. Mary Ann Morgan was born in 1825. We do not know the names of their parents. We do not known where or when either one was born. They appear on the census for 1850 and 1860 Mobile County , Alabama(page 472 in 1850 and page 158 in 1860).The family has not been located on the 1870 Census.

William Crawford according to the Federal Bureau of Land Management bought the following land in north Mobile County, Alabama on the 01st of September 1845. The NE part of the SE part of Section 15 in Township 2 North in Range 3 West. This land was just northwest of the present day town of Citronelle, Alabama near the Washington County, Alabama line.

On the 15th of August 1863 William Crawford enlisted into Company D of the 1st Regiment Battalion Mobile City Guard as a private. At that time William Crawford stated that he was a farmer and that he was 52 years old. His record also states that he served in Captain Toomers Home Guard Defense Company. The job of the home guard was to provide local defense and to round up those who were hiding out to avoid service in the Confederate Army. The home guard was made up of men and boys that were to old or to young for regular military service. Later its appears that Willian Crawford was reassigned to Company G of the Alabama 4th Regiment Reserves. William's military record states that he was in the Alabama Chunchuia Guard. Chunchuia is a small community near Citronelle, Alabama where the William Crawford family lived.

After the Civil War ended William Crawford disappears from all records. His wife Mary Ann Morgan Crawford shows up next on the 1880 Census for Jackson County, Mississippi page 586. It shows:

> Crawford, Mary age 55 born in Alabama with both her father and mother born in Alabama.

Mary Ann is also listed as a widow. Which means that William was dead by 1880. It is not known if William moved to Mississippi before he died or if Mary Ann and the children left Mobile County, Alabama after he died. There was several Morgan families in Jackson County, Mississippi that seemed to have come from Mobile County. May be Mary Ann moved to Jackson County, Mississippi to be near family ?

On the 21st of January and the 16th of March 1887 Mary Ann Crawford filed for a Homestead with the land office at Jackson, Mississippi. The application was given file # 10,235. Her witnesses included: John Carter, Luke Mizell, William Hamilton, and M.L. Hamilton all of Americus, Mississippi. The land was described as the East ½ of the North East ¼ and the East ½ of the South East ¼ of Section 32 in Township 4 South in Range 5 West containing 159 Acres of land. In her testimony Mary Ann Crawford stated the following facts: She lived in Jackson County, Mississippi about 10 miles from the land claim before settling on it; She was a native born U.S. citizen; She was 55 years old and a farmer; She first moved on to said land in September 1887; She just had one child,a son, still at home; her home was built by her son; the home was built of logs covered with boards and was 16 X 20 ft. in size; she had a stable; a barn; 2 plowes; one hoe; one ax ; 2 sheep; 9 hogs; a table and chairs; beds; and she states that she raises rice, corn, and potatoes.

The Federal Buearu of Land Management records show that Mary Crawford bought the above described land in Jackson County, Mississippi. The issue date was 12 January 1889. It was given document #3857.

The last record for Mary Ann Morgan Crawford is the 1910 Census for Jackson County, Mississippi. It shows an 85 year old Mary Ann living with her daughter Susan Crawford Mizell and Susan's husband Luke Mizell in the Hurley community of Jackson County, Mississippi. Mary Ann died before 1920. She was buried in the Coleman Cemetery at Hurley. Her grave is marked with a headstone that gives her name as "Grandma Crawford" with no dates. We do not know when or where William Crawford died or was buried.

William and Mary Ann Morgan Crawford had (8) eight known children. There might be more, but these are the only ones we have located to date. Their names come off the census records. The 1860 census for Mobile County only gave the first initial of their first name. So we do not have the full name for at least (2) two of the children.

The (8) eight known children of William and Mary Ann Crawford:

1.Harriet Crawford- was born in Mobile County, Alabama around the year 1845. The 1850 and 1860 Census are the only known records for Harriet Crawford to date.

2.Susan Crawford- was born in Mobile County,Alabama on 16 May 1848. She married Luke Mizell in Jackson County, Mississippi. Susan took in her elderly mother Mary Ann and took care of her. Susan's husband Luke Mizell fought during the Civil War for the cause. Susan Crawford Mizell died on 23 February 1925 and was buried in the Magnolia Springs Cemetery at Hurley, Mississippi.

3.Elisha Crawford-was born in Mobile County, Alabama on 19 August 1849. He married Anonia Hamilton in Jackson County, Mississippi on 23 December 1886. Elisha Crawford died on 01 November 1933 and was buried in the Coleman Cemetery at Hurley, Mississippi.

4. ? Crawford- was a male child born in Mobile County, Alabama around @1851. We can not make out his name on the 1860 Census for Mobile County. No other known records have been found to date.

5.William David Crawford-was born in Mobile County, Alabama on 17 August 1853. He married Almedia Hamilton in Jackson County, Mississippi on 07 November 1880. William David Crawford died on 11 January 1917 and was buried in the Coleman Cemetery.

6.E. ? Crawford-was a female child born in Mobile County, Alabama around @1859. We only have the child's first initial of her first name. No other known records have been found to date.

7.Sarah Leona Crawford-was born in Mobile County, Alabama on 27 July 1864. She married Nathaniel M. Monteith in Jackson County, Mississippi on 18 February 1879. Sarah Monteith died on 19 April 1939 and was buried in the Coleman Cemetery at Hurley, Mississippi.

8.John Wesley Crawford-was born in Mobile County, Alabama on 09 March 1865. He married Florence Smith in Jackson County, Mississippi on 18 December 1892. John Wesley Crawford died on 25 February 1934 and was buried in the Coleman Cemtery at Hurley, Mississippi.

It appears that all of the above named children were born in north Mobile County near the present day town of Citronelle, Alabama. Death certificates for a few of the above named children names the town of Citronelle. In researching this family one may want to focus on that area. One would also want to see if there is a connection between Mary Ann Morgan Crawford and the Morgans that lived in the Hurley and Americus Area of north Jackson County, Mississippi during the 1870's - 1910.

One clue maybe a man named Ramson Morgan. He married Fanny Phillips in Mobile County on 07 March 1841. They seem to be in the Citronelle area about the same time as William and Mary Ann. Later what appears to be a younger Ramson Morgan appears in the Hurley area of Jackson County, Mississippi. This could be a clue into Mary Ann's family ? When William Crawford and Mary Ann Morgan married in Mobile County, Alabama in 1844 a Nathaniel Howard helped with their marriage bond. This Nathaniel Howard may be a relative ? I've not conducted alot of research on the Crawfords or the Morgans. The Mobile County , Alabama court house records need to be researched.

THE CARMOUCHE FAMILY

Submitted by: Mrs. Catherine Baillio Futch

The following information on the CARMOUCHE family has been prepared from the records of Pointe Coupee parish courthouse, the Catholic Churches of Pointe Coupee parish, especially St. Francis Chapel, the Louisiana Historical Quarterly and various family records.

Research in these records was done prior to 1966 by Mrs. O. E. LaCOUR, Morganza, La., Mrs. Dallas W. FUTCH, Baton Rouge, La. with the cooperation of J. G. GRIGGS, Baton Rouge, La., who died in 1968.

No effort has been made to secure information on the present generation except where they are related to the LaCOUR or VIGNES family.

1. Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE 1, called Lorain (or Lauriens), a locksmith, was the first CARMOUCHE of whom we have a record in America. He died before November 13, 1753. See New Orleans Genesis V. 3 page 206.

On Feb. 6, 1726, Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE 1, was married to Anna Alexandre CHENETTE (also called Anne CHENET.) This date is in the succession of Anna Alexandre CHENETTE CARMOUCHE (see Volume 13 Louisiana Historical Quarterly, pages 352-355.) She was the daughter of Vincent Alexandre CHENET and Marie PROU.

In this succession of Anna Alexandre CHENETTE CARMOUCHE, the record is in Spanish and her husband is referred to as "Juan CARMOUCHE." The inventory and various records of her succession shows that her husband died prior to November 13, 1753.

Her succession record dated August 23, 1778, in Volume 13, Louisiana Historical Quarterly pages 352-355 is as follows:

August 23.
Intestate Succession of Anna Alexandre CHENETTE, Inventory and valuation of her estate.

This proceeding is begun in the usual way with the official notice of the death of Anna CHENETTE, (CHENET) widow of the deceased Juan CARMOUCHE called Laureins who has left children absent from the Colony and minor grandchildren. This is followed by the certification to the death signed by GARIC, and the collection of the keys from Luisa CARMOUCHE, widow DUBORD, a daughter of the deceased. A search is made for the will but both escribanos testify no will has been filed. DUFOSSAT then ordered the keys delivered to Salomon MALLINES whom he names guardian of the estate since the deceased has left minor grandchildren heirs of her late son, Claudio CARMOUCHE. Some of Anna Alexandre CHENET's children are absent from the Colony. The Alcalde names as curator ad lites for these minors, their brother, Juan Baptiste CARMOUCHE, and as defender for the absent heirs, Francisco BROUTIN, both must be notified to accept and qualify. Salomon MALLINES receipts for the keys and consents to act as guardian of the estate which is turned over to him.

Juan B. CARMOUCHE accepts the office of Curator qualifying and naming as his surety, Luis LeSASSIER, Francisco BROUTIN does likewise as defender of the absent heirs appointing Luis LeSASSIER, his surety who agrees to act as security for both, signing a separate bond for each one. The Court confirms the appointments. The interested parties then petition for an inventory and valuation of the estate, Juan B. CARMOUCHE naming Miguel FORTIER his appraiser and as the greater part of the estate is on Claudio CARMOUCHE's plantation where the deceased made her home he asks to go there first to take inventories. Petition granted and FORTIER accepts and qualifies. Francisco BROUTIN names Martin MORRO (MOREAU) his appraiser.

These preliminaries over the interested parties leave the city for the plantation to begin taking the inventory on September 1, 1778, in the presence of Alcalde DUFOSSAT, the escribano, Juan B. CARMOUCHE, curator ad lites to his brothers, minor children of Claudio CARMOUCHE, Francisco BROUTIN, defender of the minor children of Anna CHENET, Widow CARMOUCHE, Luisa, Widow of Joseph Dubord Baptiste CARMOUCHE and Pedro Daspit SAINT AMAND (T) as husband of Mariana CARMOUCHE, deceased, representing his children. Miguel FORTIER, and Martin MORO appraisers. The foregoing all embarked in a pirogue at nine o'clock in the morning which they found in front of the city that Salomon MALLINES, guardian of the estate had placed at their disposition to take them to Claudio CARMOUCHE's place. They were rowed up the river by two negroes and arrived at their destination situated on the other side of the Mississippi, four leagues above the city. They landed to make preparations to begin their work the next morning because it was now very late in the afternoon.

The estate consists of house furnishings, table silver, jewelry, cloth materials, wearing apparel, tools implements, slaves, livestock. The inventory is signed by DUFOSSAT, FORTIER, MORO, GARIC, Michel ST. AMANT, for his father, A. J. PIQUERI for his wife, Rosalie DASPIT ST. AMANT, Salomon MALLINES, Francisco BROUTIN. When the inventory was finished all those participating in it re-embarked in the pirogue and with the same two negro rowers left the plantation at nine o'clock in the morning and reached the city at five o'clock in the afternoon.

They then proceeded to make an inventory of Anna Alexandre CHENET's property in the city which was done in the presence of the parties who took the inventory in the country. The estate here consists of household effects, papers inventory of her late husband's estate dated November 13, 1753, their marriage contract dated February 6, 1726, the partition of the CARMOUCHE estate dated June 9, 1764, certified copy of the sale of Juan CARMOUCHE's estate dated March 19, 1764, Renunciation by private document of Luis CHANCELLIER and his wife Theresa CARMOUCHE dated December 2, 1744, by which they forego all claims on the CARMOUCHE inheritance. Pedro CARMOUCHE's receipt in favor of Anna CHENET for various effects, a certified copy of an act of sale of a house belonging to Juan CARMOUCHE situated corner of Conti and Chartres. Mr. MORO's note for 50 hard pesos in favor of Anna CHENET, a house and lot on Burbon (Bourbon?) Street between Santiago FORMELIER or FONSELIER and Mrs. BOISCLAIRE, silver table furnishings and silverware which must be appraised by Pedro COUDRAIN, silversmith. All property inventoried both on the plantation and in the city is left in charge of Salomon MALLINES, guardian of the estate at the disposition of the Court.

The interested parties then ask that the inventory and appraisement be approved by the Court and all ordered to abide by it. DUFOSSAT rules that with the consent of all parties he approves the inventory and appraisement made and condemns all to abide by it and that the records of the case be sent to the minor's curator so that he may promote what belongs to his representation.

Juan B. CARMOUCHE, curator for his minor brothers, Francisco BROUTIN, defender of the absent heirs, Pedro ST. AMANT represented by his son, (Daspit ST. AMAND), Juan CARMOUCHE, called Loreins and Luisa CARMOUCHE, Widow DUBORD, heirs of Anna Alexandre CHENET, each in a separate petition ask for the sale of the estate at public auction and that public calls be made to that effect.
page Petition granted and the three calls are made September 22, October 1, and 3, by 354 Juan BESSIERRE, public crier.

The auction is held October 12, when each item is offered for sale. A new feature enters into the sale of the livestock, as each article is adjusted the purchaser signs his name on the record. These purchasers are Pedro SAINT AMANT, Nicolas PIQUERI, Andres REYNAUD, Martin MORO, Andre DUPRE, DUBOURG, Joseph FOSSIER, Antonio PIQUERI, Joseph DELHOMMER and a free negro JOSEPH who does not sign. The other effects are sold in the usual way until the slaves are offered, then again, as in the sale of the stock each purchaser signs for his purchase. These are Juan B. WILTZ, Dominque SAINT AMANT, Antoine ST. AMANT, Alexandre HARANG, Robert AVART, Francisco BIROT. The sale of the slaves is followed by the offer of the house and lot on Bourbon Street which was adjudicated to Francisco MONPLAISIR for 550 pesos to be paid within the year with Juan SURIREY de la RUE as his surety. Signed Dufossat Francisco BROUTIN, Francisco MONPLAISIR, Solomon MALLINES, Daspit SAINT AMANT for his father, SURIRAY (SURIREY?) del la RUE and Juan B. GARIC.

Luisa CARMOUCHE, Widow of Joseph DUBORD, presents the act of partition of her father's estate and claims that 208 pesos, 5 reales is due her from this inheritance and 145 pesos, 5 reales for interest for the fourteen years that she has been deprived of her money. She prays to be paid this 354 pesos, 2 reales by the guardian of the estate.

The exhibit, dated June 9, 1764, gives the names of Anna CHENET's children as Marianne, (wife of Pierre Daspit ST. AMANT), Claude, Marie Louise (wife of Joseph DUBORD), Pierre, Baptiste and Joseph CARMOUCHE. The estate amounts to 16113 Livres to be divided among the widow and heirs, the former to receive 8056 livres, 10 sols and a like amount to be divided among the six children after certain deductions are made for funeral expenses and other debts which makes the actual sum for division 7099 livres, 10 sols, giving each child 1183 livres, 5 sols.

BROUTIN then asks that Saloman MALLINES, guardian of the estate, give an account and sworn statement of his administration of Anna CHENET's property. DUFOSSAT orders this done within nine days. After some delay this accounting is given, 8 vouchers are presented and as assets there are 9 entries, the reading shows:

Recapitulation

Assets ------------	6578 pesos 5 reales
Charges and deductions	122 pesos 3 1/2 reales

This accounting is contested by BROUTIN who places the full amount of the estate as:

Recapitulation

Assets -------------	6578 pesos 4 reales
Charges and deductions	162 pesos 3 1/2 reales
Remainder ---------	6416 pesos 0 1/2 reales.

page 355 The case now passes to Alcalde Pierre de VERGES' court and Salomon MALLINES presents a bill and says he has been ordered to pay Vincent REILLIEUX this bill of 6 pesos, 3 reales which he would like to have adjusted in his account and sworn statement. He also presents a certified copy of a receipt showing that Francisco and Antonio PATUREL had received from Salomon MALLINES, as Anna CHENET's testamentary executor 320 pesos, the remainder of a debt that the deceased owed on the house. By this act he also asks to have adjusted in his account and sworn statement, Pedro Daspit ST. AMANT, and Luisa CARMOUCHE, Widow DUBORD, each in a separate petition expresses himself and herself as satisfied with Salomon MALLINES' account and sworn statement and ask for a partition.

Alcalde Pierre de VERGES: With the consent of the parties he approves Salomon MALLINES' account and sworn statement and in consequence, condemns all to abide by it and he orders that the records of the case be sent to the present escribana so that he may draw up the formula for partition deducting what is due by the deceased to Luisa CARMOUCHE from her paternal inheritance as appears from the exhibit and petition presented on page 72 with interest at 5%, likewise deducting the costs of this case which must be taxed by the present escribana. GARIC taxes these costs at 337 pesos, 5 reales. The partition is dated February 18, 1779, giving to each of the six heirs 841 pesos, 7 reales, 23 maravedis, and in the case of Claudio and Mariana CARMOUCHE this amount must be divided among their children. The last entry is a note certifying that Pedro DASPIT, curator ad bono for Claudio CARMOUCHE's minor children signed a receipt for their shares on September 7, 1781.

This succession shows the following children of Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE 1, and Anna Alexandre CHENETTE (CHENET): a. Marianne CARMOUCHE; b. Claude CARMOUCHE; c. Marie Louise CARMOUCHE 1; d. Pierre CARMOUCHE I; e. Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE II; f. Joseph CARMOUCHE I.

a. Marianne (Marie Anne) CARMOUCHE called Lorain, was married about 1749 or 1750, to Jean Pierre DASPIT I, also referred to as Pierre DASPIT called ST. AMANT (ST. AMAND). (Records on this family are in Volume 25 page 263-267 Louisiana Historical Quarterly dated October 1764.) Marianne CARMOUCHE died before August 23, 1778, according to her mother's succession.

Jean Pierre DASPIT I, called ST. AMANT (ST. AMAND) was the son of Jean Francis DASPIT I (also called Juan FRANCISCO by the Spaniards) and Marie Francoise (Francisca) DUBUISSON of Dunkerque. Jean Pierre DASPIT I, called ST. AMANT died October 7, 1784, according to the Louisiana Historical Quarterly Vol. 25, page 263. His will, a part of this document, was dated March 27, 1780, and listed his children. (Jean Francis DASPIT's father was killed by Natchez Indians, his widow married Antoine MEIULLONS,Vol. 17 page 363.) A more complete record of these children appeared in the June 1965 issue of the New Orleans Genesis, in a record of this family by Mrs. Irma Adams CENTANNI.

To the union of Jean Pierre DASPIT and Marie Anne CARMOUCHE were born: a. Anna DASPIT; b. Marie Francoise DASPIT; c. Pierre DASPIT II; d. Michel DASPIT called ST. AMANT; e. Jean Francois DASPIT II; f. Alexandre DASPIT; g. Rosalie Genevieve DASPIT. Baptisms are from the records of St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, La.

a. Anne DASPIT was born in 1751. She died before 1780.

b. Marie Francoise DASPIT was born in 1753. She is said to have married Alphonse PERRET, however, (La. Historical Quarterly, Vol. 6 page 339, shows Joseph PIQUERI, son of Pierre PIQUERI and Jeanne FADU married Marie Francoise DASPIT on June 30, 1770.)

c. Pierre DASPIT was born in 1755. He married Marie MAYEUX, daughter of Francois MAYEUX and Nicole PREVOST, on December 7, 1778.

To this union were born: a. Pierre DASPIT II (also called Pierre DASPIT dit ST. AMANT); b. Marie Anna DASPIT; c. Pierre DASPIT III; d. Marcel DASPIT; e. Anna FARA (Pharilly) DASPIT, baptized Sept. 3, 1795; f. Seroul (Serule) DASPIT; g. Edessia (Odessa) DASPIT; h. Bacilice DASPIT.

Pierre DASPIT II married his second wife Marie LeROUX in 1803. (For details on this and succeeding generations see the New Orleans Genesis page 211-221, June 1965.

d. Michel DASPIT was born in 1756. He married Frances ZERINGUE. He became known as Michel ST. AMANT. A child Francisca Azelia DASPIT baptized May 12, 1799.

e. Jean Francois DASPIT I, was born in 1759. He married Marie Barbe ZERINGUE. They had at least one child; a. Jean Francois DASPIT III; who married his cousin Brigette CARMOUCHE, daughter of Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE II, and Marguerite LeROUX.

f.. Alexandre DASPIT, was born in 1761. He married Marguerite ZERINGUE, daughter of Joseph ZERINGUE and Agatha LaCROIX. A child Pedro Geofrois (Geofrey) DASPIT, baptized April 6, 1798.

g. Rosalie Genevieve DASPIT was born in 1762. She married Antoine J. PIQUERI.

At this point it would appear that the branches of this family split into two distinct lines, one called "ST. AMANT," and the other "DASPIT."

No further research has been conducted on this family as a part of the CARMOUCHE records.

b. Claude CARMOUCHE died in New Orleans, La. October 30, 1774. He married Barbe VUGOL, and had at least three children: a. Pierre CARMOUCHE born in 1757, died June 11, 1794; b. George CARMOUCHE born 1782, died Feb. 26, 1807, in New Orleans, La.; c. Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE, born in St. Martinville. A record on this man is dated September 1, 1778, when the inventory of the estate of Anna Alexandre CHENETTE was made at the home of her son, Claude CARMOUCHE. The record refers to the minor children of Claude CARMOUCHE but does not name them and does not say whether Claude CARMOUCHE was alive. The children's shares of the estate was signed for by Pierre DASPIT on September 7, 1781.

c. Marie Louise CARMOUCHE I, was baptized April 23, 1745, at St. Louis Cathedral. On January 11, 1762, she married Pierre Joseph DUBORD I, of Kaskaskia. (Pierre Joseph DUBORD I, was previously married to Isabelle BIENVENU.)

Pierre Joseph DUBORD I, called Joseph DUBORD I, died before December 17, 1778, the date of his succession in Volume 13, page 163, Louisiana Historical Quarterly.

Their children's ages in 1778, include: a. Mariana DUBORD II, age 13;
b. Joseph DUBORD, age 10; c. Marie Louisa (Luisa) DUBORD, age 6;
d. Lorenzo (Laurent) DUBORD age 4; e. Eugenie DUBORD, age 18 months.
(c. Marie Louisa DUBORD bapt. 21 June 1771.)

The only additional record is on e. Eugenie DUBORD, who married Jean Baptiste Toutant BEAUREGARD, baptized January 11, 1768, the son of Jacques Toutant BEAUREGARD and Margaret CARTIER. Eugenie DUBORD died January 2, 1836.

d. Pierre CARMOUCHE I, was born about 1734. He died in Lafayette in 1822. He was twice married first to Genevieve ROUSSEAU and second to Francoise GUEHO.

On Nov. 3, 1761, at St. Francis Chapel he married Genevieve ROUSSEAU, daughter of Antoine ROUSSEAU of Des Allemands, and Genevieve CHENAL (or CHEVAL) of Quebec. The civil marriage contract at Pointe Coupe courthouse is dated October 20 or 20, 1761, part of document #1021 in book for year 1779. Genevieve ROUSSEAU died October 10, 1776.

A partial list of their children includes: a. Pierre CARMOUCHE II, b. Francois CARMOUCHE I; c. Narcisse CARMOUCHE I, d. Jean Baptiste CARMOUCHE III; e. Hypolite CARMOUCHE; f. Helene (Elene) CARMOUCHE I.

a. Pierre CARMOUCHE II, was born September 2, 1765, and baptized September 4, 1765, at St. Francis Chapel Pointe Coupee parish (Records are now in the Diocese of Baton Rouge Archives, Baton Rouge, La. He may be the infant Pierre CARMOUCHE, buried from St. Francis Chapel on August 10, 1773.

b. Francoise CARMOUCHE I, was born April 14, 1768, and baptized April 18, 1768, at St. Francis Chapel. He died April 24,1836 in Lafayette.

On May 12, 1787, he married Francoise ARCENEAUX, daughter of Pierre ARCENEAUX and Anne BERGERON. They had the following children: a. Emilien CARMOUCHE; b. Marcelite CARMOUCHE.

a. Emilien CARMOUCHE married BREAUX. No children were born to this union.

b. Marcelite CARMOUCHE married Joseph BREAUX. There is a record of a daughter: a. Celeste BREAUX married to Emilian ARCENEAUX; according to Ruth ARCENEAU (X?) who was their great, great grandchild.

c. Narcisse CARMOUCHE I, was born July 24, 1770, and baptized at St. Francis Chapel August 5, 1770. He died October 8, 1840. His succession, document #223, is dated October 19, 1840.

On February 13, 1792 he married Francois PAUQUE (POCK or POCHE), daughter of Martin PAUQUE (POCK or POCHE) and Francoise PORCHE. A partial list of their children includes: a. Helene CARMOUCHE II; b. Helene CARMOUCHE III; c. Julie CARMOUCHE I; d. Narcisse CARMOUCHE II; e. Narcisse CARMOUCHE III; f. Narcisse CARMOUCHE IV; g. Martin CARMOUCHE I; h. Genevieve CARMOUCHE; i. Francois CARMOUCHE II; j. Louis Villeneuve CARMOUCHE; k. Troisville CARMOUCHE; l. Armentine CARMOUCHE. (These names are from the records of St. Francis Chapel, and from the inventory of the estate of Narcisse CARMOUCHE I, dated October 19, 1840, at Pointe Coupee courthouse New Roads, La.) Not in chronological order.

a. Helene CARMOUCHE II was born June 2, 1793, and baptized June 7, 1793, at St. Francis Chapel.

b. Helene CARMOUCHE III, was born February 23, 1795, and baptized May 9, 1795. She was first married on June 22, 1806 to Francois MAJOR, son of Estevan (Etienne) MAJOR, and Magdelene GUERIN. Francois MAJOR died in 1817.

Among their children were: a. Julie MAJOR born about 1809, was married July 24, 1838 to James JOFFRION, son of Paulin JOFFRION III and Helene PICARD; b. Alexandre MAJOR born about 1810; c. Martin MAJOR born about 1812, was married May 12, 1840 to Olivia CHUTZ, daughter of Laurent CHUTZ (CHITZ, SHUTZ, etc.) and Marie SAISAN.

On March 5, 1818 Helene CARMOUCHE II, signed her marriage contract with her second husband, Paulin JOFFRION I, son of Joseph JOFFRION and Julie GUERIN. (Document #3911 in Pointe Coupee.)

An incomplete record of their children includes; Paulin JOFFRION II, who was married December 27, 1842, to Delphine GREMILLION, daughter of Charles GREMILLION and Rosalie DeCUIR.

c. Julie CARMOUCHE I, was baptized on October or December 11, 1796. She was buried from St. Francis Chapel on December 25, 1808 at age 13 years.

d. Narcisse CARMOUCHE II, was born about April 1798, and baptized November 12, 1798, at age 8 months. It is probable that he died about the time of his baptism as a brother bearing the same name, was born in 1800, and another in 1802.

e. Narcisse CARMOUCHE III, was baptized Sept. 14, 1800, age 3 months.

f. Narcisse CARMOUCHE IV, was born February 5, 1802, and baptized June 20, 1802. He died about 1872.

He was twice married first to Rosalie PORCHE IV, and second to Mary Alexandrine ARCENEAUX.

On January 31, 1820, he signed his marriage contract document #454, to marry his first wife Rosalie PORCHE IV, daughter of Michel PORCHE and Rosalie LANGLOIS. She was born about 1800 and died before March 18, 1852, the date of her daughters marriage.

Another document regarding this marriage of Rosalie PORCHE was the signing of the parental consent, document #441, dated January 12, 1820.

The children on the 1850 census of Pointe Coupee parish and on record of St. Francis Chapel are: a. Narcisse CARMOUCHE V, age 27; b. Valmont CARMOUCHE, age 24; c. Magdeline Louise CARMOUCHE (not on Census); d. Valcour CARMOUCHE, age 19; e. Rosalie CARMOUCHE I; also age 19; f. Helen (Ellen) CARMOUCHE IV; g. Emile Aloysius CARMOUCHE, age 13; h. Vincent CARMOUCHE, age 11; i. Rosa CARMOUCHE, age 7; also residing in the house was Pierre CARMOUCHE, age 19, in 1850, who has not been identified unless he is the one who was 30 in 1860. (This Pierre CARMOUCHE whose parents have not been established married ____________ OUBRE and had __________

a. Narcisse CARMOUCHE V, was born 1823, being age 27, in 1850. He died before the 1880 census.

He was married June 25, 1844, to Adeline BRASSEUX, daughter of Alexandre BRASSEAU (BRASSEAUX) and Genevieve CARMOUCHE. We have a record of the following children: a. Joseph ALUVE (?) CARMOUCHE; b. Genevieve CARMOUCHE; c. Alexandre Vincent CARMOUCHE; d. Pierre Numa CARMOUCHE; e. Martin Emile CARMOUCHE; f. Lucien Emare Leonard CARMOUCHE; g. Charles Theophile CARMOUCHE.

a. Joseph ALUVE (?) CARMOUCHE was born January 28, 1844, and baptized February 18, 1944.

d. Pierre Numa CARMOUCHE was born December 11, 1850, and baptized October 15, 1851.

e. Martin Emile CARMOUCHE was born November 29, 1854, and baptized February 1, 1855.

f. Lucien Emare Leonard CARMOUCHE was born January 30, 1858, and baptized September 25, 1858.

g. Charles Theophile CARMOUCHE was born January 3, 1862 and baptized September 18, 1862.

b. Valmont CARMOUCHE was born about 1826, being age 24 on the 1850 census. He died November 25, 1853, at age 27.

On March 27, 1845, he became the first husband of Madeleine Eucharist VILLERET, daughter of Abraham VILLERET and Calise PORCHE. An incomplete record of their children includes:

a. Rosalie CARMOUCHE IV; b. Abraham Diogene CARMOUCHE; c. Clement CARMOUCHE; d. Joseph Alfred CARMOUCHE.

a. Rosalie CARMOUCHE IV was born January 20, 1846, and baptized March 2, 1846.

b. Abraham Diogene CARMOUCHE was born November 11, 1847, and baptized March 2, 1848.

c. Clement Hermogene CARMOUCHE was born October 1, 1850, and baptized April 20, 1851.

d. Joseph Alfred CARMOUCHE was born March 25, 1853, and baptized June 1, 1853.

c. Marie (Magdeline) Louise CARMOUCHE, was born ________ Her name was not on the 1850 census as she had married before the census. The ceremony was performed on March 27, 1845, at the home of Narcisse CARMOUCHE. She married Jacques Philippe Edward MONTEITH II, the son of Jacques Philippe MONTEITH I. and Marie Marguerite Francoise Josephine LEVOUD (?).

Their children were as follows: a. Luc Edourd MONTEITH; b. Louis August MONTEITH; c. Francois Martin MONTEITH; d. Rosalie Blanche MONTEITH; e. Joseph Edmond MONTEITH; f. Josephine MONTEITH; g. Benjamin Vincent MONTEITH; (possibly others).

a. Luc Edward MONTEITH was born May 10, 1845, and baptized July 23, 1846.

b. Louis August MONTEITH was born October 6, 1846, and baptized August 4, 1847.

c. Francois Martin MONTEITH was born March 7, 1853, and baptized May 22, 1853.

d. Rosalie Blanche MONTEITH was born September 29, 1857, and baptized November 30, 1857.

e. Joseph Edmond MONTEITH was born November 25, 1859, and baptized January 17, 1860.

f. Josephine MONTEITH was born December 18, 1861, and baptized September 18, 1862.

g. Benjamin Vincent MONTEITH was born July 31, 1864, and baptized January 9, 1866.

d. Valcour CARMOUCHE I, was born about 1831, being age 19 in 1850. He was married prior to 1846, to Ophelia LEONARD whose parents' names have not been located.

A partial list of their children includes: a. Marie Rosalie CARMOUCHE; b. Helene CARMOUCHE V; c. Valcour CARMOUCHE II; d. Ophelia CARMOUCHE; e. Ovide CARMOUCHE; f. Unnamed son; g. Philomen Anne CARMOUCHE; h. Charlotte Florestine CARMOUCHE.

a. Marie Rosalie CARMOUCHE was born March 12, 1853, and baptized June 1, 1853, on August 7, 1867 she was buried from St. Francis Chapel.

Dear Don:

This is in response to your letter of 16 July 1995.

1. I have photocopied the relavent pages from the 1860 and 1870 California Census indexes.

2. We do not own the Census index for Nevada or Oregon.

3. Our county's records started in 1850 when we became a county, however many records were destroyed in a courthouse fire in 1905. To check for anything specific you would need to contact the El Dorado County Recorder-Clerk's Office. Their address is: 360 Fair Lane, Placerville, California 95667.

4. According to California Gold Camps by Erwin Gudde, it is spelled a variety of ways (see enclosed sheets). I also photocopied how it was spelled in the U.S. 1850 census for California.

5. According to California Gold Camps by Erwin Gudde, it is located in the town of El Dorado. So far I have not found the creek on any maps of the town, however I am enclosing a map of the town.

6. On could read the local newspaper, however it is not indexed. The mining claims and land records would be located at the Recorder-Clerk's office (address above).

7. I am not sure what records Sacramento would have. However you could contact the California Room at the California State Library, P.O. Box 942837, Sacramento, California 94237-0001.

8. We have no records at our library. I checked through the basic books we have on the history of our county and neither name (Morton W.N. Monteith or Catherine Ely White Monteith) were listed.

I am enclosing the names of local researchers who may be of help to you.

WE ARE RETURNING YOUR REQUEST FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON(S):

__Due to staffing limitations, we are unable to answer correspondence requests. Your question can be submitted to your local library. If they do not have the information you need, they may have other sources available through interlibrary loan and/or interlibrary reference services.

XX If you wish to hire a researcher, we are enclosing a list compiled by the California State Library.

XX Your local library may have access to the Sacramento Bee and Sacramento Union newspapers. If not, they can borrow them for you on microfilm from the California Room of the California State Library, PO Box 942837, Sacramento, Ca, 95814. (916 654-0176).

__You can obtain birth, marriage, death, and divorce records from July 1,1905, for those persons born, died, etc., in California. Write or call: California Dept. of Vital Statistics, State Dept. of Health, 304 S Street, Sacramento Ca, 95814. (916-445-2684).

__You might also want to contact BeeSearch, 2100 Q Street, Sacramento, Ca, 95816, (916-326-5566). They provide some online database searching of the Sacramento Bee. Some services are free, others involve charges.

__Sacramento city directory information (through 1982 only) can be obtained by requesting interlibrary loan reference service through your local library.

XX Other: I search extracts of vital statistics from the Bee, 1870-1905 and did not locate any information on Morton Monteath with any spelling variation.

Sincerely,

there and that an English boy had taken out 800 dollars in two weeks. In 1855 it was a "thriving little town," and the population was mostly Portuguese and Negroes (Hutchings, Diary, April 24, 1855). Raymond, VII (pp. 91 and 96) refers to Massachusetts Flat and Negro Hill as the principal gravel mines of the Georgetown Divide, which had yielded richly in the past and were still yielding small amounts in 1874.

Massachusetts Hill [Nevada]. Southwest of Grass Valley. Situated on the same lode as Gold Hill. This lode is said to have produced five million dollars by 1865 (Cronise, p. 580). The first quartz was discovered at Massachusetts Hill early in January, 1850, and the same year two Germans built the first rude mill. (Bean, pp. 206 ff. and 228.) The deposits are mentioned by Schaeffer (p. 131). They were not as rich as those of Gold Hill. The Mining Press, May 8, 1862, reports that four men took out nearly 6 thousand dollars in six days from the Black Ledge on Massachusetts Hill. Several mines were still working with moderate success in 1867 and the Ben Franklin Mine on the south side of the hill yielded ninety dollars per ton in 1867 (Bean, p. 228). Raymond, VI (p. 118) lists the mines around the hill as idle in 1873. A renewal was attempted in 1896 (Mining Bureau, XIII, p. 251).

Matelot Gulch [Tuolumne]. Extends north from Columbia to Matelot Reservoir. The name also appears as Matloe, Matlock, and Matchlock. Since matelot is the French word for sailor, it may be assumed that French miners first mined here. Newspapers brought reports of rich diggings. One company struck a new lead and made 100 dollars in seven hours (San Francisco Evening News, June 14, 1854). Aiken and Company averaged six ounces per day and one Saturday took out twenty-three ounces (Sacramento Union, February 27, 1855); Stagman-Cunningham averaged ten to twenty dollars a day to the man (San Joaquin Republican, May 27, 1855); Porter paid seven dollars a day to the man (Sacramento Union, May 14, 1855). The place is mentioned in the letters of Charles W. Thompson in 1859 and reported as doing tolerably well. But in 1861 it was worked out because of the delay of the completion of the Columbia Gulch flume (Mining Press, November 23, 1861). Shown on the USGS Columbia 1948 quadrangle.

within the city limits of El Dorado. They are mentioned as rich diggings by E. D. Perkins on December 25, 1849. They are also listed as a gold camp in the County History, 1883 (p. 203). The U. S. Bureau of the Census lists the names of 672 inhabitants on Mathinias (or Mathines) Creek in the population schedule for 1850. A Mathines Creek Mine is described in 1888 in Mining Bureau, VIII (p. 190), and it is still listed in 1916, though idle. The creek, a tributary to the North Fork of Cosumnes River, is shown on Doolittle's map, 1868, as Mathenas Creek. See Maith Creek.

Matheus [Nevada]. About three miles southeast of the junction of Deer Creek with Yuba River. Shown on Milleson and Adams' map, 1851.

Mathinas, Mathines, or Mathinias Creek [El Dorado]. See Matheneys Creek.

Matildaville [Nevada]. Near Blue Tent, on the road to Humbug. According to an article in the Nevada City Transcript, December 12, 1860 (quoted in Nevada County Historical Society Bulletin, June, 1952), it was a "brisk little mining village," named in honor of the first woman resident.

Matsells Creek [Mariposa]. See Maxwell Creek.

Maumee Placers [San Bernardino]. See Lava Bed District.

Maxwell Creek [Mariposa]. An intermittent stream which empties into Horseshoe Bend of Merced River. Shown on Trask's map, 1853, and Goddard's, 1857. The diggings were on both sides of Coulterville. The creek was named for George Maxwell (or Matsell), who mined here in 1849. Jim Savage mined here with his Indian relatives in 1849–1850 (Church, p. 184). Eccleston gives a good account of mining between the Tuolumne and Merced rivers in his diaries of October, 1850. In 1852 the average yield of placering was between fifteen and twenty dollars per day to the man (Browne, p. 20). A post office was established November 20, 1852; in 1872 the name was changed to Coulterville. For an account of lode mining here, see Coulterville.

Maybert [Nevada]. On the South Fork of Yuba River, five miles east of Washington. The Nevada Directory, 1895, lists the mines operating at that time, and the Register of 1900 lists a large stamp mill. The chief mine, the Eagle Bird (Diamond Creek Consolidated) operated intermittently from "early days" to 1934. There were several locations, extending from the William Crawford, for many years a resident of Mobile, came from Louisa county, Virginia, to St. Stephens as federal district attorney in 1817. His ability at once placed him prominently before the public, and he was elected president of the bank at St. Stephens in 1818. He was a law partner there of Hon. Henry Hitchcock till that gentleman was transferred to the bench. In 1822 he was a candidate before the legislature for the federal senate against two or three competitors, and on the first ballot ran ahead of Hon. Wm. R. King of Dallas, but, the contest being narrowed down to the two, Col. King was successful. In 1825 he was chosen to the senate from the district composed of Washington, Mobile, and Baldwin, but resigned the following year to accept the office of federal district judge—an office he filled with honor and credit till his death. He came to reside in Mobile in 1827. He took no further active part in political affairs, in full accord with the custom of those who wore the ermine in that day, but discharged his official duties till his death in 1849. Judge Crawford was neither sociable nor popular, for he was a man of strong antipathies, and austere bearing; but he was a thorough lawyer, and a dignified magistrate. His wife was a daughter of Judge Fitts, a North Carolinian, whose son represented Washington in the legislature at one time.

→ Jack Ferrell Ross of this county was one of the early settlers of the State. He was born near Raleigh, North Carolina, in 1793, and was educated at Chapel Hill. Attaining to manhood during the war of 1812, he was commissioned as captain in the federal army, and was in active service in the South under Gen. Jackson till the peace. He then resigned, and became a merchant at St. Stephens. He was the first State Treasurer. In 1823 he came to Mobile, and was here a leading citizen and merchant. He served the county in both branches of the legislature, the last time in 1835. He was also a planter in Greene and Clarke counties, at different times. He died of yellow fever in October 1837. Capt. Ross was wealthy, and exceedingly hospitable, and popular. In appearance he was very stalwart and handsome. Of his descendants, two sons, Major Wm. H. Ross and Dr. F. A. Among the earliest public men of the State, George W. Owen, of this county, deserves mention. He was a native of Brunswick county, Virginia, and was born in 1795. His father was a planter, and was the son of a professor in William and Mary College. Mr. Owen grew to manhood in Davidson county, Tennessee, where his parents had settled in 1808. He was graduated at the University at Nashville, and read law with the statesman and jurist, Hon. Felix Grundy. Receiving license to practice, he at once came (1816) to Claiborne, Monroe county. There he was the senior of a law partnership with Hon. John Gayle. He represented Monroe in the first and second legislatures (1819 and 1820) and was speaker of the house the latter year. He was elected to congress in 1823, and continued there by successive elections till 1829. In that year Gen. Jackson appointed him collector of the port of Mobile, an office he held five or six years. He was elected mayor of Mobile in 1836, and died Aug. 18, 1837, at his plantation near the city. His wife was a sister of Mr. A. C. Hollinger, who represented the county in the legislature in 1840. Several of their children are yet residents of Mobile and Montgomery, and a nephew, Mr. R. B. Owen, represented Mobile in the legislature in 1853. Mr. Owen was highly respected for his talents and character, and esteemed for many virtues.

George Strother Gaines, for many years a resident of Mobile, is a native of Stokes county, North Carolina, and was born in 1784. His father was a colonial officer in 1776, and a nephew of Judge Edmund Pendleton of Virginia. His mother was a Miss Strother. The parents removed to Sullivan county, Tennessee, in 1794, and the son remained there till appointed assistant factor of the United States at the Chocta trading house on the Tombikbee in 1805. A year later he was appointed factor, a position he held fourteen years. When the massacre of Fort Mimms occurred, Mr. Gaines's dispatch was the first one to reach Gen. Jackson and Gov. Blount. In 1816 he removed the factorage to what is now Sumter county, but resigned three years later, and became a merchant at Demopolis in 1822. From 1825 to '27 he served Marengo and Clarke in the State senate. He led the party of Choctas which explored their present homes beyond the Mississippi in 1829, and assisted in the removal of the tribe. In 1830 he came to Mobile, and engaged in merchandising, and was president of the branch bank. Having previously established a farm in southeast Mississippi, he removed to that State in 1856, William Allen Crawford, 53, formerly of Pascagoula and a resident of Route 2, Grand Bay, Ala., was dead on arrival Thursday at the University of South Alabama Medical Center, after a car-truck accident on U.S. 90 near Mobile.

A native of Moss Point, he was a plumber and an Army veteran of World War II.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosemary Spinks Crawford of Grand Bay; four sons, Donald Ray Crawford of Escatawpa, William Frank Crawford, Thomas Allen Crawford and Kenneth Edward Crawford, all of Pascagoula; three daughters, Miss Ivy Marie Crawford of Pascagoula, Miss Elizabeth Ann Crawford and Miss Ruth Angelina Crawford, both of Grand Bay; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan W. Crawford of Grand Bay; three sisters, Mrs. Wesley Hughes of Mobile, Mrs. Katherine Hamilton and Mrs. Mildred Beard, both of Grand Bay; one brother, Frank Crawford of Grand Bay; and six grandchildren.

The family will receive friends Friday 5-8 p.m. at O'Bryant-O'Keefe Funeral Home in Pascagoula.

Services will be conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. at the funeral home chapel, followed by burial in MachPelah Cemetery.

the people to resume the building and bring the temple to a state of completion. In this the prophets were successful. These two prophecies should be read in connection with the first six chapters of the book of Ezra. This book consists of five general divisions:

1. Introduction, i. 1-16. 2. The nine visions—the horse and rider, four horns symbolic of oppression, man with the measuring line, the high priest, Joshua and Satan, golden lamp fed from the two olive trees significant of the restored Jewish Church supported by the Spirit of God, a flying roll, a woman in an ephah, the four chariots, and the last, which is more properly an oracle, the placing of the crown upon the head of Joshua. 3. The four oracles delivered in the fourth year of Darius. 4. The future fortunes of Judah, viii-xi. 5. Messianic prophecies, xii-xiv. The smitten shepherd; the advent of the royal Messiah; His glorious reign. One of the greatest Messianic prophecies in the Old Testament.

MALACHI.

The last of the prophets, contemporaneous with Nehemiah the last of the Old Testament historians. The name Malachi signifies ''my angel.'' The word angel means messenger. Since the prophets are spoken of as messengers of Jehovah, it is supposed by some that Malachi is not a proper name, but a general title descriptive of this character. The message of Malachi is in line with the reforms of Nehemiah. The abuses set forth in the book of Nehemiah are dealt with by the prophet. In this connection, and to grasp more clearly the close connection between Nehemiah and Malachi, compare Neh. xiii. 23-31, with Mal. ii. 11. ''But his object as a prophet was to foretell the coming of our Lord, the Messenger of the covenant, the Sun of Righteousness, and his forerunner, John the Baptist. As the spirit of prophecy was now to cease, the Messiah having been clearly and progressively made known to the Jews by a long succession of prophets more and more distinct in their predictions, Malachi with peculiar solemnity concludes his mission, seals up the volume of prophecy by a description of a prophet, which is applied in the New Testament to Him with an account of whom the evangelists begin their gospel history.''

The book falls into three parts: 1. Judah's treatment of God and His institutions, i-ii. 10. (1) Israel's ingratitude to God for all His merciful dealings with the nation. (2) Their impious and worthless offerings upon the altar, lack of sincerity and zeal in spiritual things. (3) The priests reproved. They failed to maintain the covenant. 2. Defections bearing upon inter-marrying with the heathen denounced, ii. 11-17. The prophet labors in full coöperation with Nehemiah in dealing with these abuses. 3. The Old Testament closes with prophecies of the Messiah, his person, work and forerunner. Almost at the opening of the Old Testament is given the first announcement of the Redeemer. Throughout the centuries his person and work are clearly set forth. And now the last word of the Old Testament is a description of the Messiah who will yet tarry for four hundred years. The Old Testament is Christo-centric.

MATTHEW.

Why we have Four Gospels and not simply one or two is evident from the design of each Gospel. They were written for different classes, and hence their characteristics are entirely different. Matthew's Gospel would not answer the purposes of the other Gospels, just as they would not meet the needs of the Gospel of Matthew. For this reason, while there is a certain value in a Harmony of the Gospels, it is much more important that they be studied and understood from the standpoint of their characteristics. The same thing reported by two or more of the Gospels might have a different application in each case according to the essential character and design of each.

According to Mark, Matthew was the son of Alphæus (Mk. ii. 14). He was a collector of customs under the Roman government and it may be he held his appointment at Capernaum. He was one of the apostles. His work brought him into close dealings with men and he would not be likely to be easily duped.

Papias speaks of a work written by Matthew in Hebrew, by which would be meant Aramaic, a collection of sayings of our Lord. Jerome declares that the Hebrew Gospel of Matthew was preserved in the library at Cæsarea. By both external and internal proofs the genuineness of Matthew's Gospel is well established, as much so as any work of classical antiquity. It was in use among Christians at an early day, and at the end of the first century the apostolic Fathers accepted it as having canonical authority.

According to the early Fathers it was written for Jewish readers. None of the other evangelists quotes so largely from the Old Testament. Jewish rites and expressions are not explained by Matthew as is done by Mark and John. It is evident from the book itself that it was written for the Jews. Setting forth Christ as the promised Messiah of the Old Testament, the Sermon on the Mount shows the relation in which he stood to that covenant. This sermon, as reported by Matthew, gives a completeness of arrangement and unity that gives it a distinctive place among all the other discourses.

In writing for the Jew with a view to establishing the Messianic claims of Jesus we can understand why he should give the royal and covenant descent of our Lord by tracing his genealogy to David and Abraham, while Luke, whose design was entirely different, traced it to Seth and Adam.

☞ See note in red ink, which Registers and Receivers will read and EXPLAIN THOROUGHLY to persons making application for lands where the affidavit is made before either of them.

Timber land embraced in a homestead, or other entry not consummated, may be cleared in order to cultivate the land and improve the premises, but for no other purpose. If, after clearing the land for cultivation, there remains more timber than is required for improvement, there is no objection to the settler disposing of the same. But the question whether the land is being cleared of its timber for legitimate purposes is a question of fact which is liable to be raised at any time. If the timber is cut and removed for any other purpose it will subject the entry to cancellation, and the person who cut it will be liable to civil suit for recovery of the value of said timber, and also to criminal prosecution under Section 2461 of the Revised Statutes.

NOTE.—It is required of the homestead settler that he shall reside upon and cultivate the land embraced in his homestead entry for a period of five years from the time of filing the affidavit, being also the date of entry. An abandonment of the land for more than six months works a forfeiture of the claim. Further, within two years from the expiration of the said five years he must file proof of his actual settlement and cultivation, failing to do which, his entry will be canceled. If the settler does not wish to remain five years on his tract, he can, at any time after six months, pay for it with cash or land warrants, upon making proof of settlement and cultivation from date of filing affidavit to the time of payment.

NOTE.—It is required of the homestead settler that he shall reside upon and cultivate the land embraced in his homestead entry for a period of five years from the time of filing the affidavit, being also the date of entry. An abandonment of the land for more than six months works a forfeiture of the claim. Further, within two years from the expiration of the said five years, he must file proof of his actual settlement and cultivation, failing to do which, his entry will be canceled. If the settler does not wish to remain five years on his tract, he can, at any time after six months, pay for it with cash or land warrants, upon making proof of settlement and cultivation from date of filing affidavit to the time of payment.

Dear Don:

This is in response to your letter of 16 July 1995.

1. I have photocopied the relavent pages from the 1860 and 1870 California Census indexes.

2. We do not own the Census index for Nevada or Oregon.

3. Our county's records started in 1850 when we became a county, however many records were destroyed in a courthouse fire in 1905. To check for anything specific you would need to contact the El Dorado County Recorder-Clerk's Office. Their address is: 360 Fair Lane, Placerville, California 95667.

4. According to California Gold Camps by Erwin Gudde, it is spelled a variety of ways (see enclosed sheets). I also photocopied how it was spelled in the U.S. 1850 census for California.

5. According to California Gold Camps by Erwin Gudde, it is located in the town of El Dorado. So far I have not found the creek on any maps of the town, however I am enclosing a map of the town.

6. On could read the local newspaper, however it is not indexed. The mining claims and land records would be located at the Recorder-Clerk's office (address above).

7. I am not sure what records Sacramento would have. However you could contact the California Room at the California State Library, P.O. Box 942837, Sacramento, California 94237-0001.

8. We have no records at our library. I checked through the basic books we have on the history of our county and neither name (Morton W.N. Monteith or Catherine Ely White Monteith) were listed.

I am enclosing the names of local researchers who may be of help to you.

WE ARE RETURNING YOUR REQUEST FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON(S):

__Due to staffing limitations, we are unable to answer correspondence requests. Your question can be submitted to your local library. If they do not have the information you need, they may have other sources available through interlibrary loan and/or interlibrary reference services.

XX If you wish to hire a researcher, we are enclosing a list compiled by the California State Library.

XX Your local library may have access to the Sacramento Bee and Sacramento Union newspapers. If not, they can borrow them for you on microfilm from the California Room of the California State Library, PO Box 942837,Sacramento, Ca, 95814. (916 654-0176).

__You can obtain birth, marriage, death, and divorce records from July 1,1905, for those persons born, died, etc., in California.Write or call:California Dept. of Vital Statistics, State Dept. of Health, 304 S Street, Sacramento Ca, 95814. (916-445-2684).

__You might also want to contact BeeSearch, 2100 Q Street, Sacramento, Ca, 95816, (916-326-5566).They provide some online database searching of the Sacramento Bee. Some services are free, others involve charges.

__Sacramento city directory information (through 1982 only) can be obtained by requesting interlibrary loan reference service through your local library.

XX Other: I search extracts of vital statistics from the Bee, 1870-1905 and did not locate any information on Morton Monteath with any spelling variation.

Sincerely,

other one was put up; the bridge property being a very well paying business, this being the main road from Sacramento to all those mining camps in the northern part of this county to all the river bars on the Middle and North Forks of the American river, and to all the mines beyond there in Placer county. In 1856, Mr. Raun sold out his interest in all those bridges to Richards & Pearish, and later Mr. Richards was the sole owner of this bridge. The railroad, however, which took away the travel from this road and the giving out of the river bars, did not give a profitable outlook, and since the high-water washed away the bridge for the second time it has not been rebuilt.

The town that in a short time did grow from a few Mormon huts to a community of some note, with a population of about 3,000, with many stores, and other pertainings of a mining town, that could make some show with three well built up streets, with good paying mines, on the flat as well as on the river bar, is gone. All that is left is a store, the school house and Mrs. Berry's residence and hotel; the latter was partly erected in 1850, this had been shipped around Cape Horn from the East, and was bought by Mr. Berry to make some debt good. The trees in front of it were set out in the fall of 1854, and January, 1855.

There were some mining camps in this township around which some little towns had been built up; their fate, however, was similar to that of Salmon Falls; only a few scattered roofs remind one of the location of the town site. One of them was Pinchem gut, or Pinchem tight, located at the junction of Pinchem ravine and Weber creek, near an old saw-mill. A man by the name of Ebbert kept a store and saloon there, and taking out his pay for drink or goods in gold dust, used to pinch the gold dust so tight in order to get as much as possible. He was a shoemaker by trade, and a German by nationality. The first school in the district was taught by a Frenchman in the house of Mr. Etzel, another storekeeper, and Miss Van Doran succeeded him. Near by was another town, Jayhawk, named after the Missourians, who first settled down on the place. On the Coloma road there was Green Springs, once the location of Green valley Post office, which now is located about four miles farther east close on to Rose Springs, so called from the abundance of wild roses growing there around the springs. There was a store kept on the place till 1868, also a saloon and a blacksmith shop. Wing's Store, the place where polls are kept now, in this precinct, used to be a store in former years. McDowell Hill on the South Fork, below Salmon Falls, once had a population of about 100 miners with four stores.

EL DORADO,

Up to the the time of its incorporation as a town, in the winter of 1855, the village went by the name of Mud Springs, and was a mining camp of some note; this was one of the first mining camps in the county, the first locations having been made in 1849 and '50. The name of Mud Springs, which is not unfrequently used even now, was derived from some springs near town that had been used by emigrants to water their cattle and other stock, by which means the surrounding ground had become quite muddy, and to distinguish these springs from the Diamond Springs, about two miles further up, the passing emigrants called them Mud Springs. The first quotation of the name of El Dorado, instead of Mud Springs, was in a correspondence under date of August 7th, 1855; but officially the change did not take place until January 1st, 1856. The incorporation line of the present place concerns all what was then known as Empire Ravine, Dead Man's Hollow, Loafer's Hollow, Logtown creek, Matheney's creek, Slate and Dry creeks. James Thomas was one of the first settlers, he erected in the winter of 1849 to 1850 a trading post and hotel, called Old Mud Springs House. The year of 1851 developed the camp to its utmost capacity. To the rich placer mines worked all around the discovery of a lot of quartz veins was added, and resulted in the erection of five steam quartz-mills on Matheney's creek, and four others on Logtown creek. which, together with all the mines, gave employment to not less than 500 laborers. A great many stores, hotels, boarding houses and other business places were engaged to provide for the necessities of all of them. Among the residents of early El Dorado or Mud Springs we find just as many names of men who became prominent in time as any of the other towns of equal size in the county. Messrs. Blanchard. Meredith, Tebbs were the first attorneys: the Harvey Brothers and Dr. H. M. Fiske were the first physicians.

Of secret societies, the Masons are represented at El Dorado with the Hiram Lodge. No. 43. F. and A. M.; the Odd Fellows, with Aurum Lodge, No. 23.: the Grangers with El Dorado Grange. No. 178. there and that an English boy had taken out 800 dollars in two weeks. In 1855 it was a "thriving little town," and the population was mostly Portuguese and Negroes (Hutchings, Diary, April 24, 1855). Raymond, VII (pp. 91 and 96) refers to Massachusetts Flat and Negro Hill as the principal gravel mines of the Georgetown Divide, which had yielded richly in the past and were still yielding small amounts in 1874.

Massachusetts Hill [Nevada]. Southwest of Grass Valley. Situated on the same lode as Gold Hill. This lode is said to have produced five million dollars by 1865 (Cronise, p. 580). The first quartz was discovered at Massachusetts Hill early in January, 1850, and the same year two Germans built the first rude mill. (Bean, pp. 206 ff. and 228.) The deposits are mentioned by Schaeffer (p. 131). They were not as rich as those of Gold Hill. The Mining Press, May 8, 1862, reports that four men took out nearly 6 thousand dollars in six days from the Black Ledge on Massachusetts Hill. Several mines were still working with moderate success in 1867 and the Ben Franklin Mine on the south side of the hill yielded ninety dollars per ton in 1867 (Bean, p. 228). Raymond, VI (p. 118) lists the mines around the hill as idle in 1873. A renewal was attempted in 1896 (Mining Bureau, XIII, p. 251).

Matelot Gulch [Tuolumne]. Extends north from Columbia to Matelot Reservoir. The name also appears as Matloe, Matlock, and Matchlock. Since matelot is the French word for sailor, it may be assumed that French miners first mined here. Newspapers brought reports of rich diggings. One company struck a new lead and made 100 dollars in seven hours (San Francisco Evening News, June 14, 1854). Aiken and Company averaged six ounces per day and one Saturday took out twenty-three ounces (Sacramento Union, February 27, 1855); Stagman-Cunningham averaged ten to twenty dollars a day to the man (San Joaquin Republican, May 27, 1855); Porter paid seven dollars a day to the man (Sacramento Union, May 14, 1855). The place is mentioned in the letters of Charles W. Thompson in 1859 and reported as doing tolerably well. But in 1861 it was worked out because of the delay of the completion of the Columbia Gulch flume (Mining Press, November 23, 1861). Shown on the USGS Columbia 1948 quadrangle.

Matheneys; Creek, Diggings [El Dorado]. The diggings beside the creek are now within the city limits of El Dorado. They are mentioned as rich diggings by E. D. Perkins on December 25, 1849. They are also listed as a gold camp in the County History, 1883 (p. 203). The U. S. Bureau of the Census lists the names of 672 inhabitants on Mathinias (or Mathines) Creek in the population schedule for 1850. A Mathines Creek Mine is described in 1888 in Mining Bureau, VIII (p. 190), and it is still listed in 1916, though idle. The creek, a tributary to the North Fork of Cosumnes River, is shown on Doolittle's map, 1868, as Mathenas Creek. See Maith Creek.

Mathinas, Mathines, or Mathinias Creek [El Dorado]. See Matheneys Creek.

Matildaville [Nevada]. Near Blue Tent, on the road to Humbug. According to an article in the Nevada City Transcript, December 12, 1860 (quoted in Nevada County Historical Society Bulletin, June, 1952), it was a "brisk little mining village," named in honor of the first woman resident.

Matsells Creek [Mariposa]. See Maxwell Creek.

Maumee Placers [San Bernardino]. See Lava Bed District.

Maxwell Creek [Mariposa]. An intermittent stream which empties into Horseshoe Bend of Merced River. Shown on Trask's map, 1853, and Goddard's, 1857. The diggings were on both sides of Coulterville. The creek was named for George Maxwell (or Matsell), who mined here in 1849. Jim Savage mined here with his Indian relatives in 1849–1850 (Church, p. 184). Eccleston gives a good account of mining between the Tuolumne and Merced rivers in his diaries of October, 1850. In 1852 the average yield of placering was between fifteen and twenty dollars per day to the man (Browne, p. 20). A post office was established November 20, 1852; in 1872 the name was changed to Coulterville. For an account of lode mining here, see Coulterville.

Maybert [Nevada]. On the South Fork of Yuba River, five miles east of Washington. The Nevada Directory, 1895, lists the mines operating at that time, and the Register of 1900 lists a large stamp mill. The chief mine, the Eagle Bird (Diamond Creek Consolidated) operated intermittently from "early days" to 1934. There were several locations, extending from the

Dear Ms. Martin,

I hope you had a great trip. I wrote to the National Archive' s in Washington, D.C. for copies of the land records and homestead application records for Morton W.N. Monteith, Mary Catherine Monteith, and Nathaniel M. Monteith. I have made copies of all these records for you to place in the MONTEITH FAMILY FILE at the library.

drum, which can be heard or at least felt by Ripley's deaf and hearing-impaired players. A trainer pounds on the drum from the sidelines after the players receive hand signals about which beat to snap the ball on.

"On defense, there's really not a disadvantage," Ripley said. "We can watch the ball go off. In fact, on defense it's an advantage to be deaf because the other team's quarterback cannot draw us offsides with his voice count."

There's another advantage, said lineman Teddy Beasley.

"When we play on the road, naturally, crowd noise is not going to bother us," he said. "When we're at home, we can't hear the crowd but we can feel them. ... We can look ... handicapped," said Ripley, who arrived before last season. "Our deafness may be an inconvenience at times, but we are not handicapped."

Students come from around the state to this town of 20,000 in east Alabama, where the Alabama School for the Deaf and an adjacent school for the blind attempt to better the lives of those who can't hear or see.

"There are a lot of deaf students in public schools," said Don Hackney, ASD's athletic director. "The ones who come here want to be a part of sports and other activities."

Like Beasley, a lineman from Mobile.

"The first time I left home, I was homesick," he admitted. "Now, this is my home."

Beasley has been at ASD for eight years. He's been playing football since 1985, starting with a midget team and moving up to the varsity two years later.

"Football has helped me a lot," he said through sign language. "It has improved my patience and I have learned a lot from it, things like cooperation with my teammates. We know each other better. When I get a job, this will help me learn to get along with other people."

The Silent Warriors spent this past week getting ready for a big game against another undefeated team, the Eastern North Carolina ... to further his education.

"I hurt my wrist swinging at the drum," he said with a smile. "It's better now."

The drum is merely one means of communication on the gridiron. A blur of arm and hand motions are used by the coaches to instruct, praise, scold and cajole.

Most of the top players hope to continue their playing careers at Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C., the nation's most prominent school for the deaf. That was where Ripley, their head coach, played quarterback.

"I'm going to stay in shape so I can try out for the football team there," said senior Adam Bodine, a quarterback and safety. "Hopefully, I can make it."

Some deaf players — like former Nebraska star Kenny Walker, now with the NFL's Denver Broncos — were able to attend mainstream universities.

Walker has shown the players at ASD that a hearing disability need not stand in the way of their dreams. You don't have to understand sign language to see that on their faces.

"We look up to him as an idol," said senior Jonathan Hollis, the Silent Warriors' leading rusher. "There are other football players that we look up to. But he's special because he's deaf."
